

LADY CAPTAIN'S WEEKLY NEWS

7th October 2024

This is a very busy time of year at the San Roque Club, I am trying to remember when it is not busy! Gary and I are finding it a little tricky to fit all the players into our allocated slot, by doing 8 mins tee times we are managing. Please try and put your name down as early as possible if you would like to play as this will help us when doing the lists for the weekly competitions.

ONLY AT THE SAN ROQUE CLUB !!!!

On Tuesday Doggie was presented with his own bowl by Stephen – he couldn't resist sending his picture in when he saw the email from Alicia about personalised bowls for members pets!!!

Thank you for all your orders for our new team outfits. The shop will be sending our order out. We will start afresh in the new year all looking very smart.

Thank you as always to Amanda Stanford of Abbeygate for her generous sponsorship for this yearly Board event to happen.

Well done to Alyona for her three birdies, she said her game was a bit like a rollercoaster, although by the looks of her scoring she is getting to grips with the course – watch this space. So proud of Agi for getting her first birdie of the year !!! I am sure there will be more.

As I mentioned earlier the course is incredibly busy, so congratulations to the ladies who really kept up with the pace of play. I always say in meetings that we are very rarely the cause of slow play. Thank you to all of you.

AND FINALLY

Agi already has her team complete for the Los Naranjos Interclub, coming up on Monday 21st October away. She will send her selection on Facebook and do a WhatsApp group from Mauritius where she and Norman are holidaying. I will be captaining the away match on her behalf. Come on team, let's do it for Agi.
