MEN'S Competition Thursday January 30th

Normal weather conditions prevailed with the sun making an appearance, but somebody forgot to switch the heating on early doors. Twenty-six members competed in the Thursday competition with just two players scoring better than their handicap. The course was not yielding a lot, the wind picked up and the back nine proved quite difficult. However, it did not stop Paul Ingebrigtsen winning with 39 points, two points ahead of Toon van Berlo. The two's had twins today with Jim Jenet and Ciaran both delivering the same.

Many thanks as usual to Amanda and Andy Stanford for their continued sponsorship of the Monthly Ranking. With a relatively small field of 27 players scoring was very difficult with nobody making handicap. Congratulations to Ciaran Lally finishing with 35 points, beating Jim Jenet with the same score on handicap. There is still one event to go and still all to play for.
